Please research the term “critical thinking,” online or using conventional textual materials, and write a one page paper in which you define the term, cite your sources and show how critical thinking applies to critical reading.

Research Mortimer J. Adler of The Great Books Foundation and find the reason he gives for reading great works. Write a one page paper in which you summarize his ideas, and then give your reasons why you may agree or disagree with him.