Strategies for Creating Sustainable, Healthy, & Economically Vibrant Communities

We welcome you to join us for the National Conference on Equitable Development. The Conference will be held June 20-21, 2018 at the Bethune- Cookman University Performing Arts Center. This year's theme is "Strategies for Creating Sustainable, Healthy, & Economically Vibrant Communities."

CALL FOR ABSTRACTS – DEADLINE FOR ABSTRACTS IS MAY 21, 2018

We are soliciting poster and oral presentations for the Conference emphasizing the theme. We are looking for presentations which address an array of equitable issues including but not limited to:

- Housing and Transportation for a Healthy Community
- Community Health, Health Equity, Built Environment
- Economic Revival, Opportunity, and Development
- Community Development, Land Use, Zoning, and Environmental Justice
- Fresh and Healthy Food, Community Gardens, Farmer's Markets

Registration is open and sponsors and exhibitors are already signing up.

CALL FOR PRESENTATION ABSTRACT DETAILS

Interested participants are requested to submit an abstract for consideration by the Conference committee and will be selected based on the merit of the abstract and its support of the target tracks. Abstracts with an emphasis on the above topics and creative presentation concepts will be given the highest consideration. All abstracts will be peer reviewed and notifications sent to submitters on acceptance decision by May 29, 2018
