

The newly launched BJ Moore Center for Faculty Innovation is pleased to offer the below workshops as part of the Fall 2018 Faculty Institute. Workshops will run concurrently and will be held in the University's Gross Science Building.

WORKSHOPS
CONCURRENT SCHEDULE
1:30 p.m. – 2:30 p.m.

TOPIC	PRESENTERS	LOCATION
Building Bridges, Not Walls: Fostering a Culture of Civility in Academia through Transformational Communication and the Affective Domain	Dr. Camesha Manzueta Director, BJ Moore Center for Faculty Innovation & Associate Professor Bethune-Cookman University	Science Bldg. Room 101
Circles of Innovation: Bricks, Clicks and Teacher Tricks to Engage Gen Z	Dr. James May Faculty Fellow for Innovation and Technology & Professor of English as Second Language Valencia College	Science Bldg. Room 102
Emerging Technologies: Tips and Tools to Enhance Student Engagement	Ms. Cheryl Kohen Director of Center for Faculty Innovation Daytona State College	Science Bldg. Room 104
High-Impact Practices (HIP)- Integrating Research and Education	Dr. Adrienne Cooper Associate Provost Bethune-Cookman University	Science Bldg. Room 109
Social Justice in the Classroom: From Discussion to Innovation	Dr. Davina Jones Professor Pasco Hernando State College	Science Bldg. Room 110