Office Responsible:

Office of the Registrar

Scope

This policy applies to all students at Bethune-Cookman University.

Policy

Students who are interested in auditing a course must formally register to take the course as an “Audit” during the regularly designated preregistration time period. The registration status can only be changed to “audit” in the Office of the Registrar. The course must be paid for according to the Semester Hour rate at the time of registration. Students enrolled in courses for “Audit” are not required to submit assignments or take examinations. No academic credit is given for audited courses. Students may not change from audit to credit or credit to audit after the official drop/add period has ended.
